SUNSET MAGAZINE is published monthly by the Passenger Department, Southern Pacific Company, 431 California street, San Francisco, California. The subscription price is One Dollar a year. Its circulation is world wide. It is the only magazine that faithfully tells, by picture and text, of the wonders of California, and of the Nation's western border land. It is notable for the number and artistic merit of its engravings. Its contributors are among the best writers and illustrators in the country. The representative business houses advertise in its pages. If you want to learn of California and the West read SUNSET regularly.
